Re: James Harold Story

Dear Jim:

Thank you for your note of August 16 in response to our recent letter requesting additional substantiating material regarding James Story, former Neighborhood Commissioner, who was recently placed on our file.

In all confidential file matters, the strong recommendation is that local councils keep no material in their own files, and that all original material be forwarded to the national confidential file for safe keeping and future reference. In this way there is never any danger of wrong persons obtaining access to files in a local situation.

Therefore, I would suggest that you send us the original statement concerning James Story, and that you not keep a photo copy. However, if you still feel the need of having something close at hand to you, then please send us the original and you keep the photo copy. Thanks for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

to whom it may concern.

Concerning two occasions when I was approached in the car at a drive-in movie. Mr. James (Seymour) Story told on the first occasion after sending the other people out of the car he tried to sexually play with me. Being under heavy pressure he proceeded to take advantage of the situation and sexually eat me. During this time and one season I finally gave in was because he told me he had done it to [REDACTED] and others.
